

List of sectors

LOT 7: Human rights, civil society, governance, justice and Home Affairs

A. EXPERTISE COMMON TO ALL LOTS

As a minimum, the expertise is required to cover the entire project cycle:

- a. programme / project identification and preparation / formulation,
- b. programme / project implementation,
- c. preparation of Terms of Reference (services) and technical annexes (works, supplies) and evaluation of offers (Procurement),
- d. evaluation of grant proposals (only for lots 1, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10)
- e. evaluations (ex-ante, interim, ex-post etc.), monitoring

as well as a number of horizontal aspects:

- f. (Cross-) sectoral policies and reforms,
- g. Macroeconomics,
- h. Public financial management
- i. legislation, regulations and law enforcement,
- j. approximation of legislation,
- k. institutional building,
- l. training and research,
- m. awareness-raising, (incl. information and communication)

B. TECHNICAL DESCRIPTION

A. Governance

A.1. Promotion and protection of human rights

In the context of the human rights approach to poverty reduction, inclusive focus on people's participation and empowerment, linkage to national and international human rights norms and standards, equality and non-discrimination, monitoring and accountability.

1. Promotion and protection of fundamental human rights
2. Social, economic and cultural rights
3. Political and civil rights (women rights, freedom of movement, freedom of thought, conscience and religion, children, minorities, migrants...)

A.2. Support to democratisation

4. Democratisation processes (incl. civic education)
5. Social and political roots of conflicts (conflict prevention)
6. Elections (excluding exploratory mission for election observers and election observers' missions)
7. Role and functioning of the Parliament
8. Citizenship (representative legitimacy, participation and political accountability)
9. Media freedom

A.3. Reinforcement of the rule of law and administration of justice

10. Reinforcement of the rule of law
11. Reform of judiciary (legal reform, justice and protection of human rights, capacity building, training of magistrates and prosecution officers...)
12. Penal regime (sentencing and detention, pre-trial, juvenile detention...)
13. Awareness and prevention of corruption
14. Police reform
15. Security sector reform (including exercise of civilian control over the military)

A.4 Public administration reform, and civil service reform

16. Public administration reform and organisational development of public institutions (including policy formulation, planning, budgeting, monitoring, evaluation...)
17. Civil service reform (including legal code, human resources management – recruitment, training, salaries...)

A.5. Decentralisation and local development

18. Decentralisation (subsidiarity, legislation, accountability)
19. Support to local authorities (local and regional levels including municipalities)
20. Community based development (empowerment and participatory approaches, gender issues, micro-projects)
21. Local development strategies (social, economic, multi-sector)

A.6. Enhancement of the role of civil society

22. Organisations (Non Governmental organisations, Community Based Organisations, media, trade unions...), roles (service delivery and advocacy) and recognition (legal framework). Including participatory organisation analysis and needs diagnostics
23. Capacity building (development of strategies, management and human resource development) (including design and delivery of training/mentoring/tutoring and other forms of support in all aspects of organisation at strategic and functional level, advocacy, internal governance, decision-making processes, accountability and transparency, fund raising ) and networking (networking at local, national, regional and international level, coalition building, intermediary organisations, dialogue with government institutions)

B. Home Affairs, the fight against organised crime (incl. drugs) and terrorism

24. Home Affairs, the fight against organised crime (incl. drugs) and terrorism